

I am strongly in favor of continuation of limits on Broadcast ownership in a specific market region. A wide range of view-points are critical to the proper functioning of a democratic society, as we are now encountering in Iraq. I am a Vietnam veteran; we fought for democracy, and expect to have equal access to a wide variety of views from U.S. media.